2016 Tariff Schedule of Rules

1. All accrued charges will be billed and collected from party surrendering warehouse receipt. All bills are due and collectible within seven days. Drafts may be drawn for all invoices that are not paid within nine (9) days after issuance.
2. Accrued storage charges may be paid through any desired date but no credit will be allowed for unused portion of month's storage. The new storage month will begin the day following payment date. Any fractional part of storage month will be counted as a full month. This applies to all cotton whether or not it involves change of ownership between parties including United States, State or City Governmental Departments or agencies.
3. All accrued charges are payable on May 31st of each year upon demand of Cargill.
4. Shipment Standards: Except when prevented from doing so by Act of God or force majeure, a mandatory, non-commutative, minimum weekly standard for bales to be shipped or made ready for scheduled delivery that week shall be not less than 4.5% of our CCC licensed capacity in effect during the week of shipment.
5. Complete shipping orders must be received five business days before the time in which they are to be shipped in order to be included in the 4.5% weekly shipment capacity. Bales subject to said standard in any week and not shipped shall be the first bales shipped out during the following week and shall be credited against the shipping standard requirement for said week.

IMMEDIATE and FUTURE SHIPMENTS:

Storage and insurance charges will cease on rail and truck shipments on the date the cotton is loaded.

Tariff Charge No. 8 will apply should delayed shipment occur.

- A) Cotton will not be delivered or placed in a break or set up for shipment until original receipts have been surrendered.
- B) If rail cars are not available, storage and insurance charges will cease on the date cars are placed on our tracks.
- C) If trucks do not pick-up on the scheduled date, a per bale charge will be assessed (see Tariff Charge No. 9 and 10) and storage and insurance will continue until the cotton is loaded.
- D) Storage and insurance charges shall cease as provided above: However, storage and/or other charges shall continue to accrue until loaded should delay in handling be caused by Act of God (weather, fire, flood, insurrection, riot, strike, labor dispute, non-availability of transportation facilities and any other causes beyond our control). Storage will not continue where there are shortages of and/or strikes by warehouse labor. In the case of strikes by warehouse labor, storage charges for cotton under shipping order will be discontinued per the items of this section if the cotton is for a bona fide sale. The warehouseman will be reimbursed for out-of pocket expenses such as insurance on the cotton involved.

- E) All days are business days except Saturdays, Sundays and holidays.
6. Lien is claimed upon cotton for all accrued charges and freight charges advanced by this Company.
 7. Cotton will not be turned out for marking, remarking, sampling, resampling, weighing, or reweighing without a written order from the owner.
 8. Shipping orders covering transit cotton and/or cotton for carload consolidation must be lodged with warehouse before arrival of cotton.
 9. This company will accept no liability for loss or unmerchantability of cotton received with insufficient, inadequate, low quality or defective bale covering and/or bale ties.
 10. This company is not liable or responsible for accidents, delays in handling caused by strikes, labor disputes, any other cause beyond its control, concealed damage, water packs, gin falls, interior damage, dampness, any irregular condition not apparent, acts of Providence, or acts of the public enemy except as otherwise required by United States Warehouse Act and Regulations thereunder.
 11. Actual labor costs and other expenses incurred, and not specifically mentioned herein, when in direct interest of Owners, shall be charged to party benefited by same, such service to be fully described on bills rendered.
 12. All cotton received in wet, muddy or damaged condition shall be subject to rejection.
 - A) This company does not guarantee weights on dry cotton.
 - B) When wet or damaged cotton is weighed, weighers will exercise their best judgment in making deduction, but this company does not guarantee such weighing.
 13. Tare shown is identical tare as certified to us by the ginner or from information furnished by previous warehouseman.
 14. When cotton is ordered delivered to pickery or others and is to be returned, all handling and storage charges accrued to date will be billed and collected, and the cotton so returned, will be handled as new receipts, furnishing all desired reference as to old warehouse numbers, planter's mark, etc.
 15. Demurrage or other time penalty charges will not be absorbed by this company, but due diligence will be used to receive and deliver goods promptly.
 16. For transferring ownership of record where no physical operation is involved, there will be no charge. New storage will begin on date of transfer, and credit will not be allowed storers for unused portion of month's storage. Original storer will pay all storage and other charges up to and including date of transfer. New storer will be charged at current rate.
 17. This company does not guarantee:
 - A) Density
 - B) Cotton shipped from its plant, but compressed at other than its plant.
 - C) Cotton which has been excessively sampled.
 - D) Cotton wrapped in unacceptable bagging material will pass Maritime inspection at the ports.
 18. This company will carry all risk insurance (except war risk, and loss or damage resulting from nuclear reaction or nuclear radiation or radioactive contamination, all whether controlled or uncontrolled. Direct loss or damage by fire resulting from nuclear reaction or nuclear radioactive contamination is insured against) against direct loss or damage to baled cotton while legally in the custody of this company and/or until such baled cotton is delivered to rail cars or on board trucks.

Customary exclusions include but are not limited to, delay, inherent vice, war risk, terrorism and loss or damage resulting from nuclear reaction, nuclear radiation, or nuclear radioactive and/or contamination arising from biological or chemical agents. Direct loss or damage by fire resulting from nuclear reaction is covered. For additional information regarding the insurance policy please contact us.

- A) In case of loss or damage resulting from fire, flood or other causes set out above, the amount of loss or damage shall be the actual cash value of the cotton, determined as follows: The actual cash value provided for in this insurance coverage shall be the market value (see NOTE 17B) of uncompressed cotton based upon the nearest applicable USDA Spot Market Quotations for the location where the loss occurs at the time and place of loss, adjusted for any appropriate freight differential or current loan value, whichever is higher. In case of no USDA Spot Quotation on the date of loss, the quotations of the Market on the next date following the loss will be used.
- B) Our insurance coverage has no relation to the price for which baled cotton may have been or could be sold or booked. Our insurance covers ONLY THE MARKET VALUE of the cotton at the time and place of loss.

- 19. A special contract with Commodity Credit Corporation covering acquired or pooled cotton stored by this Company provides that this company shall be released from the terms and conditions of the tariff and provisions contained in warehouse receipt relating to insurance at time cotton is pooled or acquired. This company shall be released from the terms and conditions of Commodity Credit Corporation contract upon the sale or transfer of the cotton to any other person, firm, agency, governmental or otherwise. Such cotton upon sale or transfer by the Commodity Credit Corporation will be subject to tariff of this company in effect at date of sale or transfer.
- 20. Claims on cotton shipped from our plant will only be considered if received by our Company within 60 days from the date of shipment.

Notes:

- Warehouses do not operate a compress; therefore, any cotton received flat will be shipped flat.
- No attempts will be made to arrange compression with some other facility.
