

If you cannot preview this letter correctly, please click here for the online version. Unsubscribe here.

Cargill Cocoa & Chocolate

Beans & More – July 2015

Empowering women in cocoa farming communities in Côte d'Ivoire

Women in cocoa farming communities represent nearly half of Africa's agricultural workers, and are critically important to developing the full potential of African agriculture and food security. However, they historically have not had the support needed to grow from subsistence farming to smallholder production and beyond. Cargill, Kellogg and ASDA are aiming to help overcome this lack of support.

Read more >

Cargill Cocoa & Chocolate Brazil tastes certified success with its first UTZ chocolate

Food industry and confectionery companies can now offer consumers Brazilian UTZ certified cocoa and chocolate products produced in accordance with the Cargill Cocoa Promise. Find out more about how these new UTZ products are securing the future of the cocoa industry in Brazil.

Read more >

Food Ingredients China – a mutual success for Cargill and its customers

At Food Ingredients China 2015, customers from across Asia recently had the opportunity to meet the Cargill Cocoa & Chocolate team located in the region, along with the chance to see how we operate there in conjunction with several other Cargill companies. Most importantly, it provided a closer look at how we can partner with you to help you capture the growth of the Asia-Pacific region.

Read more >

New Gerkens® cocoa powder trucks bringing our premium powders to you

As part of the Gerkens® brand revitalization which was embarked upon last year, new powder trucks have recently been unveiled to coincide with the new branding, bringing Gerkens® premium powders to you with an updated look and the same high quality.

Read more >

Unsubscribe here.