 Re: Poultry Country of Origin

Dear Valued Customer

Thank you for requesting information regarding the country of origin for poultry product produced at Cargill Meat Solutions and Cargill Limited, dba Cargill Protein (collectively hereinafter "Cargill"). The purpose of this letter is to provide you with factual information and aid in your assessment of any claims you make about your product(s). The animals harvested and subsequent products produced out of the below United States establishment numbers meet 9 CFR 412 and meet "Product of USA" claim:

Facility Location	FSIS Establishment #
California, MO	P-961
Dayton, VA	P-18
Springdale, AR	P-963

Although most of the poultts are hatched in the United States, there are times that we will grow poultts that are hatched in Canada and receive eggs for commercial flocks from Canada or France. However, these poultts have been raised and processed in the U.S. and as such, would still be considered a "Product of the USA".

All animals harvested and subsequent products produced out of the below Canada establishment number meets CFIA subsection 5(1) of the Manual of Procedures (MOP) and subsection 7(1) of the Consumer Packaging and Labeling Act and meet "Product of Canada" claims:

Facility Location	CFIA Establishment #
London, ON Canada	470

The raw meat and poultry materials, as well as other raw materials/ingredients utilized to manufacture the finished products primarily come from, but not limited to, the following countries:

- United States (US)
- Canada
- Mexico
- Australia
- New Zealand
- Uruguay

All raw materials have been legally imported from other countries into the US. All finished products produced out of the below US establishment number meet 9 CFR 412 and meet "Product of USA" claim:

Facility Location	FSIS Establishment #
Newnan, Ga	86G/P-86G
