

AAFCO “Human Grade”

Cargill Protein

With regards to the Association of American Feed Control Officials (AAFCO) definition of “Human Grade”, as included in AAFCO’s 2020 Official Publication.

Cargill confirms that the above referenced product is:

1. Stored, handled, processed, and transported in compliance with current good manufacturing practices for human food as specified in 21 C.F.R. part 117;
2. Produced at a facility registered with both the U.S. Department of Agriculture Food Safety Inspection Service and the U.S. Food and Drug Administration for the production of human food;
3. All ingredients used are fit for human consumption. Cargill has a Supplier Approval and Management Program to ensure all ingredients are fit for human consumption.

Cargill makes no representation or warranties as to whether the finished product would be appropriate nutritionally for human consumption.
