Re: Technical Document Date Interpretation

Dear Valued Customer

Due to the large number of technical documents we have on file to share with our customers for all the Cargill Protein products, Cargill does not update the document dates with the current calendar year. The technical documents on our website and/or have sent you are reviewed on a predetermined frequency basis the criticality of the technical content. The technical documents provided to you are the most current versions, regardless of the date of the document, as these technical documents do not expire.

Cargill will continue to strive for excellence in providing our customers with high-quality product manufactured under strict food safety standards. For additional information and/or updates please visit our websites: <https://www.cargill.com/meat-poultry/meat-food-safety> and <https://www.cargill.com/meat-poultry/feed-safety>. However should you have any specific questions please contact us at Techsvs_Requests@cargill.com. As a valued customer, we appreciate your partnership and are pleased to help meet your needs.

Sincerely,
