Maximum Limits for Diabetic Medications for all Medical Plans

The Cargill plans set limits on what you have to pay for preferred glucose-lowering drugs and insulin products to protect you from high out-of-pocket costs, enhance your cost predictability and improve your health by making it easier to pay for medication.

Quantity	Maximum Copay for Preferred Glucose-Lowering Drugs and insulin products
31-day supply	No more than $25
90-day supply (only available through mail order, CVS or Walgreens)	No more than $75
